CLEAN LINES

The MASS kitchen combines traditionally separated spaces in an extraordinary monolithic design of combined functionalities. As the first Piet Boon kitchen concept entirely finished with concrete, the matte black design is certainly a bold addition to their collection

"ALL SIZES AND CONCEIVABLE CONFIGURATIONS ARE POSSIBLE"

A confident kitchen statement comprising grounded shapes, daring proportions and various colour options, including a matte black finish. It has a massive appearance but its light-weight concrete is adaptable. "This monolithic design of combined functionalities is designed to offer scope for more than just cooking," say the designers
