

2 Antwerp, Belgium Boekenberg Park Renewing While Preserving

The historical backdrop of an 18th-century English garden in Antwerp presented OM/AR architects (operating as OMGEVING) with a challenging choice: to preserve or renew. The architects opted to restore the historic park and add three independent pavilions to tower over the landscape, like the kind of rock formations Hans Gude and Peter Balke painted in the 18th century.

© Christophe Van Couteren, courtesy of OMGEVING

A journey to

3 Antwerp, Belgium The Jane Restaurant Fine Dining meets Rock 'n' Roll

Michelin-starred chef Sergio Herman and chef Nick Bril realised a long-held dream at a unique Antwerp location: a converted military hospital chapel. Working with Studio Piet Boon, they opened a sophisticated contemporary restaurant with international appeal, offering a top-tier culinary experience in a cool and refined ambiance.

© Richard Powers, courtesy of Studio Piet Boon

